

Code of Conduct & Workplace Standards

Clearwave Technologies, Inc. — Human Resources Policy

Document ID	HR-CD-010	Version	2.0
Effective Date	March 1, 2024	Owner	People Operations & Legal

1. Purpose

This Code of Conduct establishes the standards of professional behavior expected of every Clearwave Technologies employee, contractor, and officer, regardless of role or location.

2. Professional Conduct Standards

- Treat colleagues, customers, and partners with respect and courtesy at all times.
- Perform job duties honestly, competently, and in compliance with applicable laws.
- Avoid conduct that could damage Clearwave's reputation, on or off company premises.

3. Anti-Harassment and Anti-Discrimination

Clearwave maintains a zero-tolerance policy toward harassment or discrimination based on race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age, disability, sexual orientation, gender identity, veteran status, or any other legally protected characteristic. This applies to in-person, written, and electronic communication.

4. Reporting Procedure

- Report concerns to your manager, any HR Business Partner, or the anonymous Ethics Hotline at 1-800-555-0143 (available 24/7, staffed by a third-party provider).
- Reports may be made anonymously and will be investigated within 10 business days.
- Retaliation against anyone who reports a concern in good faith is strictly prohibited and is itself grounds for disciplinary action, up to and including termination.

5. Conflicts of Interest

Employees must disclose any actual or potential conflict of interest — including outside employment, financial interests in vendors or competitors, or close personal relationships with direct reports — to their manager and HR within 5 business days of becoming aware of it.

6. Gifts and Entertainment

Employees may accept or offer business gifts or entertainment valued up to $75 per occurrence. Anything above this threshold requires prior written approval from a director-level manager and must be logged with Finance.

7. Confidentiality and Data Handling

Confidential company, customer, and employee information must not be disclosed outside Clearwave without authorization, and must be handled in accordance with the Information Security Policy (SEC-POL-004). This obligation survives termination of employment.

8. Social Media Guidelines

Employees speaking publicly about Clearwave in a personal capacity must clearly state that views expressed are their own and must not share confidential, financial, or unreleased product information.

9. Disciplinary Process

Violations of this Code are addressed through a progressive process: verbal warning, written warning, formal Performance Improvement Plan (PIP), and termination. Serious violations — including harassment, fraud, or safety violations — may result in immediate termination without progressing through earlier steps.

10. Dress Code

Standard office attire is business casual. Employee-facing client meetings, executive briefings, and investor events require business formal attire unless otherwise specified by the meeting organizer.
